

Gretna Library Renovations

In order to leverage community funds, Pittsylvania County is investing an additional $100,000 in the Gretna Library expansion and renovation project.

Work is already underway to improve the interior, and the Library Board of Trustees and Pittsylvania Public Library (PPL) Foundation are pursuing additional community funding for the development of new outdoor spaces.

Meet the Interns

Pittsylvania County's summer interns started work this week and are already learning lots and doing good work for Pittsylvania County. We will be highlighting some of the interns that are working across County government here over the next several weeks.

Kasey Martin, Pet Center

Kasey is one of two Pet Center Interns this year, and this is her second year in this position. She decided to take this position again because she really likes helping the animals and she loves her coworkers. She is currently working on cleaning kennels and feeding the animals

Shyanne McCluster, Pet Center

Shyanne is the other Pet Center Intern this year. She decided to take this position because she wants to help the helpless. She has been working with animals her whole life; she was inspired to start working with animals after her dog passed away. She is currently working on feeding the dogs, cleaning kennels, and giving all the animals love and attention. She feels good knowing that she is helping each of the animals get adopted.

New Pittsylvania County Website

Updated County Website

It's here! The new Pittsylvania County website launched on Wednesday of this week! The site

- Looks great on mobile
- Has a ton of new content about our services, operations, and people
- Is organized more intuitively.

We've set up redirects for many of the most popular links, but it's possible you will need to search for what you are looking for.

Have questions about the new site or where to find something? You can email webmaster@pittgov.org.

Tourism Survey

Danville and Pittsylvania County are developing a new tourism and marketing strategy and they are calling on local residents and business owners to provide input. The information collected will help inform the new brand identity, advance the region's tourism plan, and help assure the area's prosperous future.

Service Awards

Many Pittsylvania County employees were honored this afternoon at our annual service awards ceremony, where we recognize County workers for service milestones. Today, 52 employees were recognized for service milestones of 5 years, 10 years, 15 years, 20 years, 25 years, and 30 years. We will be recognizing many of them individually over the next several weeks. Congratulations!
