

We have missed the past few weeks of our newsletter, so this edition of PittCo Weekly is full of County news!

Interim Administrator Stepping Down

Clarence Monday, who has been serving as the Interim Pittsylvania County Administrator since February of this year, has submitted his letter of resignation, effective in 30 days or sooner, in collaboration with the Board. This decision was made now because Monday's home in the area sold sooner than anticipated.

The Board of Supervisors is in the midst of a national search for the next County Administrator.

Monday Resignation Details

Administrator Search Updates

Tradesman Trucking Breaks Ground on Gretna Facility

Pittsylvania County officials and community leaders joined representatives from Tradesman Trucking to celebrate the groundbreaking of a new 22,500-square-foot facility in the Gretna Industrial Park. A growing trucking and transit company that provides freight and other services, Tradesman Trucking is investing $4.5 million and creating 30 new jobs with this project.

View Press Release

Watch Event Video

Economic Announcements

County Awarded $2.4 Million Grant for Water/Sewer Improvements

It was announced on August 16 that Pittsylvania County has received a $2.4 million grant from the United States Department of Commerce to make necessary upgrades to water and sewer infrastructure. This includes improvements of several pump stations and the replacement of another.

View Press Release

Watch Video

Water and Sewer Project Information

Climax Convenience Center Opens

The new convenience center in Climax has opened to the public! This new center is funded by landfill contracts and will serve County residents better than the greenbox sites, which are slowly being phased out. Greenbox sites in Pittsville and and Potter's Creek have been decommissioned.

Watch Video

New Convenience Centers

Two County Bridges Renamed After Fallen State Troopers

On August 19 Pittsylvania County officials, community leaders, and law enforcement personnel, including many retired and active members of the Virginia State Police, celebrated the dedication of two, newly-minted memorial bridges in Pittsylvania County: Trooper Henry Murray Brooks, Jr. Memorial Bridge (located in Hurt) and the Trooper Henry Noel Harmon Memorial Bridge (located in Chatham).

View Press Release

Watch Video

Regina Barger Appointed Social Services Director

After several months of serving in an interim capacity, Regina Barger has been named the new Director of Pittsylvania County Social Services. The local Social Services Board made the unanimous appointment during a special called meeting Monday night.

View Press Release

PittCo Happenings - Danville Community College President

PITTCO

Happenings

For this week's episode of #PittCoHappenings, Danville Community College President Dr. Jerry Wallace, who joined in July, talks about his impressions of our region so far, his goals for growing enrolment at Danville Community College, and some of the offerings, programs, and services that the College has.

"I want us to be the premier community college in the State of Virginia. And I think it starts with expanding and being more visible in K-12."

Listen to the Episode

Volunteer Fire and Rescue Fundraisers

Pittsylvania County is served by more than 20 volunteer fire and rescue agencies, and each of them rely on donations and community support to help keep equipment running. We created a fundraiser event calendar on our website where you can keep up with all of the different fundraising events hosted by our volunteer agencies!

Fundraiser Calendar

Visit County Newsroom

Keep up with County Projects

Listen to PittCo Happenings

Pittsylvania County

1 Center Street, 24531, Chatham

This email was sent to {{contact.EMAIL}} because you have subscribed to receive notifications and updates from Pittsylvania County.

Update your preference | Unsubscribe