Chow Down back by popular demand

The June Chow Down was so well received that Pittsylvania County is offering it again as a way its employees and the community to meet up and enjoy some great food.

MULTI-AGENCY TRAINING

GRETNA HIGH AND MIDDLE SCHOOLS

MONDAY, JULY 31 7:30 A.M. TO 4 P.M.

A multi-agency training will be conducted at Gretna High and Gretna Middle schools on Monday, July 31. Traffic will be restricted near the schools during the exercise. This exercise will begin at 7:30 a.m. and will be completed by 4 p.m. Students will not be present for this exercise. There will be a significant presence of law enforcement and EMS personnel in that area.
Students return to school on August 9.

Free hospitality training

The Danville Office of Economic Development and Tourism, which serves Pittsylvania County is offering these free sessions, with two more half day events on August 24 at the Institute for Advanced Learning and Research. Tourism is economic development.

Going green in Pittsylvania County

Pittsylvania County Public Works has an all-electric F150 Lightning on loan through a program with Virginia Clean Cities and Rural Reimagined. It has a charger that can be plugged into a standard 120V plug and a range of about 230 miles on a full charge.
