Pittsylvania County Participates In Active Shooter Training

More than 200 participants and roughly 20 agencies converged at Gretna Middle and High schools to train for something that no one wants to happen - an active shooter incident with mass casualties. The training drill was held Monday, July 31, with the mock shooting and its aftermath at Gretna Middle School and support operations at Gretna High School.

Thousands of new jobs are flowing into Southern Virginia as Caesars Virginia prepares to open its permanent casino resort next year, and industries move into the region or expand.

Meanwhile, local economic developers have been pitching the vacant 3,500-acre Southern Virginia Megasite at Berry Hill for megaprojects like electric vehicle assembly and battery manufacturing plants that could employ as many as 8,500 people.
